Work in progress and current work

Books

1. Monograph (in English and in Italian) on Yemen in the twentieth-century, up to current events with a specific focus on the Yemeni Spring, the current war between Saudi Arabia and the Huthi rebels (belonging to the Shia community of the Zaydi school), and gender issues (women have been deeply involved in the Arab Spring and on this occasion advanced their demands for human and civil rights).
2. Publication of the travel report Mon voyage en Perse en 1926 à l'occasion du couronnement du Shah Reza Chan written by the Polish diplomat Thaddée de Skowronski.
3. Publication of a collection of essays by Ettore Rossi (1894-1955) on Yemen, Accademia dei Lincei, Rome.

Art

Exhibition Safar: 2003 Punto di svolta (Travel: 2003 Turning Point) opening on 20 March 2019 at MAO Museo d'Arte Orientale, Torino. Showing photos shot in Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Iran, Pakistan, Azerbaijan, UAE, Yemen, Uzbekistan before 2003 (2003 is a turning point in the contemporary history of the Middle East because on 20 March 2003 the US-led coalition invaded Iraq). Besides photos, articles published on the Italian daily IlSole24Ore and audios broadcast by Swiss Radio will be made available.

PUBLICATIONS

Books (authored)

1. Il bazar e la moschea. Storia dell'Iran 1890-2018, Bruno Mondadori, Milan 2019.

This book explores the deep economic and political links between the merchants and the mullahs, as to explain the most important events in the history of Iran since the “tobacco revolution” of 1890-92. 350 pages, ISBN 978-88-6774-2073.

2. Storia dello Yemen, Bruno Mondadori, Milan 2010

This book is a detailed monograph exploring the history of Yemen from the end of the 19th century up to Abdallah Salah's presidency. 192 pages, ISBN 9788861594081.

3. Storia dell'Iran 1890-2008, Bruno Mondadori, Milan 2009

This book is a detailed monograph exploring the history of Iran from the end of the Qajar dynasty up to the presidential elections of 2009. First edition 2003, second edition 2006, 266 pages, ISBN 8861592392. See number 1 above for the most recent, amply revised edition.

4. Islam: l'identità inquieta dell'Europa. Viaggio tra i musulmani d'Occidente, Il Saggiatore, Milan 2006

This book is the result of field-work in the mosques of seven European countries, where the author discussed with the imams and members of the Muslim communities. The main issues are the construction and funding of new mosques, the use of specific cemeteries, halal food, religious education, family law, the veil. Though listed amongst “journalistic books”, this essay is based on original research, that is on interviews with Muslim leaders in France, Switzerland, England, Sweden, Belgium, Germany and Spain. 326 pages, ISBN 8842812838.

5. The Literacy Corps in Pahlavi Iran (1963-1979): Political, Social and Literary Implications, Sapiens, Lugano 2007

This monograph is based on diaries, autobiographies and novels written in Iran by the literacy corpsmen involved in teaching in rural areas (within the so-called White Revolution) during the 1960s and 1970s, on the Iranian and foreign literature read in those two decades by the corpsmen, on documents collected in archives – Public Record Office in London, the National Archives at College Park Maryland, the Foundation of Iranian Studies at Bethesda Maryland, UNESCO archives in Paris, the International Bureau of Education in Geneva – between 1996 and 1999; and on interview held in the United Kingdom, the United States, France, Iran, Italy and Pakistan in the same period. The information found in the written sources have been supported by oral history sources. 340 pages, ISBN 883800021.

6. La pecora e il tappeto: economia tribale in Azerbaijan. Il caso dei nomadi Shahsevan, Ariele, Milan 2000

This monograph is the result of a research, completed under the supervision of anthropologist Richard Tapper, on the Shahsevan nomads in the Iranian region of Azerbaijan. The book also analyses the case of the White Tent Programme under Muhammad Reza Shah, that is an educational programme brought by the Pahlavi authorities amongst the nomads. The author had done original research in the UNESCO archives in Paris, finding historical material of the 1950s and 1960s. 160 pages, ISBN 8886480741.

Books (edited)

1. The Other Shiites: From the Mediterranean to Central Asia, edited by F. Sabahi, S. Naef and A. Monsutti, Peter Lang, Berna 2007.

This book offers a survey of the other Shiite outside Iran, with a focus on their diversity and multiplicity in the last two centuries, the public affirmation of their identities through specific rituals and social attitudes. 266 pages, ISBN 9783039112890.

2. The OSCE and the Multiple Challenges of Transition in the Caucasus and Central Asia (1991-2001), edited by F. Sabahi and D. Warner, Ashgate, Aldershot 2004.

In the wake of 9/11 and the U.S. intervention in Afghanistan, Central Asia and the Caucasus have moved to the forefront of the international political agenda. At the same time, the events since 9/11 have had a major impact on Central Asia and the Caucasus and external actors' engagement in the region; 204 pages, ISBN 0754636062.

Awards

2016 “Con gli occhi di una donna”, Lions Club Parma Maria Luigia.

2011 “Valdo Fusi – Torino Libera Award for Free Thought”, Pannunzio Centre for Free Thought with the following motivation: “The prize serves to distinguish the most significant figures in the city of Turin. Those who receive the prize are non-conformist free-thinkers endowed with a critical spirit. According to the city's best tradition, such prominent people have looked beyond the Alps, following the example of Alfieri, Gobetti, Baretti, and Cavour, who were the expression of a cosmopolitan, international and European culture. Farian Sabahi finds her rightful place among the recipients of this award. Indeed, she contributed in a scientific and secular war, to the understanding of the Islamic world. Farian Sabahi is an example of culture, freedom, scientific rigor and intellectual honesty. Her international profile honours Turin and its university”.

2010 Amalfi Coast Media Award (Mediterranean) for “her success in overcoming cultural diversity and her ability to make a difference”

(<http://www.premiobiagioagnes.it/edizioni-precedenti/2010/giuria-e-premiati>).

12 April 2010 Prize by Associazione Giardino dei Giusti di Milano. The prize is entitled to Neda Agha Soltan, killed in 2009 in Tehran and symbol of the moral resistance of the Iranian youth and their fight for freedom. The prize was awarded by the mayor of Milan Letizia Moratti and the President of the Committee Manfredi Palmieri.

2004 Premio Mustafà Souhir for the original approach in treating multicultural topics in the media (“per la multiculturalità nei media per la capacità di trattare un tema legato alla multiculturalità con un approccio originale e non stereotipato”).

Documentary movies (Direction)

1. The Children of Teheran (2018, 33') - <https://vimeo.com/244229425/cf343eafde> - This is a unique event in the history of the Holocaust. They were Polish-Jewish children who were forced to leave Poland and reached the Soviet Union, where they were deported to labour camps and later moved to Uzbekistan (Samarkand, Tashkent, Bukhara). Here they spent time in orphanages and were later transferred to the shores of the Caspian Sea (Turkmenistan and then Iran), Tehran being their final destination. In the Iranian capital they spent the longest period before reaching Palestine. For this very reason, they were called the “Children of Teheran”. The video is part of an installation shown at MAO Museo d'Arte Orientale in Turin (26 January 2018 – 11 February), MUDEC Museo delle Culture Milan (13 February 2018), Letterando Festival Sciacca (15 June 2018).

2. Out of Place (2008, 23') - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sNCwHFn7ezQ> - The story of an Iranian woman belonging to the Jewish community of Tehran who, during the Iran-Iraq war (1980-88), decided to leave Iran and move to Israel. Many years later, sitting in her home in Petat Tikva, near Tel Aviv, she regrets her choice. She misses the warmth of the Iranian people and expresses a desire to return to Iran, where her brother and sisters still live. Rachel's is the story of an immigrant mother with multiple identities. The story of a woman who suffers a deep loss. She thought she had found her ideal homeland, but it did not live up to her expectations and now, because of her son's death, she almost hates it. Rachel is a strong woman. She suffers and feels responsible for the choice she imposed on her husband and sons. Her spouse is a minor figure, less aggressive but nevertheless he has his own dignity. In this story, the impulsive young woman contrasts with the thoughtful adult. The filmmaker deliberately leaves the difficult relationship between the Islamic Republic and the Jewish State in the background while her story, triggered by the Iranian revolution, develops. Broadcast on TV Channel SkyTg24 and presented in festivals in Turin (Biennale della Democrazia), Rome, Genoa, Verona, Milan, London, Tel Aviv, Messina (SabirFest 9 October 2015, the theme of the festival will be “Fuori luogo”).

3. Che ne facciamo di Teheran? (What shall we do with Teheran?, 2008, 20') realized in Israel and broadcast on 6 August 2008 at 11 pm on the satellite channel RaiNews24 (www.rainews24.it)

4. Minareto mille punti. Un viaggio nell'Islam che c'è già (2007, 64') on the controversial construction of a mosque in Colle Val D'Elsa, Siena, funded by the Foundation Monte dei Paschi. Featuring the journalist Edoardo Camurri, directed by Pietro Raschillà, produced by Stefano Pistolini. Presented in Milano (Spazio Oberdan, 10 September 2007) and on the Italian television Nessuno Tv.
